KAMLOOPS LETTER.

Fine Weather--Mr. Lumby and the Railway--Will there be A Rival Town?

Trustee Elected--Women Vote--Belle Thistlethwaite and Women's Rights.

[From our own Correspondent.]

June weather up to date has been of a phenomenal character. Since the first of the month, not 24 hours have passed over our heads without showers, some of them quite copious. What is the result? Abundant crops, abundant grass, a cool atmosphere, freedom from dust, and the S. & O. Railway. Well, I won't include the S. & O. among the consequences of the rainy weather. It would'nt be fair to Mr. Lumby. That gentleman having struggled for years to consummate not only a pet scheme, but a feature without which no country now a days can hope to develop, must have the credit of being the moving spirit of the enterprise. And now the question comes up, how is Kamloops to be affected? Will a rival town spring up at Sicamouse or Vernon. Sicamouse, in my opinion, can never be any more than it is at present—a junction. If the railway in question develops a town it will be Vernon. Kamloops, however, should not lose the Spallumcheen and Okanagan trade. All depends on its business men. If wide-awake, enterprising business men take hold of Vernon, Kamloops remaining inert the while, the former place will be invested with powerful trading attractions. If, on the other hand, the business men of this town are determined not only to hold their own but to expand trade, what with their present prestige and capital, Kamloops must remain the emporium of the interior. Probably the more common sense way of looking at the matter is, that not a rival, but a sister town will spring up in Okanagan. Admitting, if you like that the agricultural resources of Kamloops and Okanagan are limited, their horticultural possibilities are difficult to specify. These, taking the incidental feature of mining, and we have an aggregate which bespeak two important towns. I was never more impressed with the fruit growing possibilities of the interior than the other day when viewing the gardens of Messrs. Clemmens and Murray, at Spence's Bridge. Mr. Clemmens has a fine orchard in its incipiency, and in fact he said there was nothing he couldn't raise with the application of water and elbow grease. Mr. Murray's predilections run in the direction of botany; nevertheless the cherries he is growing, the plums, apples and raspberries, all go to show that knowledge of the business, application, and irrigation are the only essentials to make the interior an emphatically fruit growing section. Last week Kamloops feasted on strawberries, costing fifty cents a pound. These strawberries were raised in New Westminster. There is no reason why this variety of fruit should not grow on the Thompson as well as on the Fraser river. It is simply a matter of elbow grease and artesian wells. What is applicable to Spence's Bridge and Kamloops in the fruit and vegetable growing line, is also applicable to any part of the interior east of the Columbia river, and south of Clinton. But it is of no use to harp on this business. Unambitious people are never open to argument. Crops won't grow without water, and water cannot be had without expense. Let us hope that the artisian well boring people will soon begin operations.

To discuss matters right at home, we had a most interesting election of the school trustees in town yesterday. Both candidates for the thankless office are men who stand high in the estimation of the community with regard to their respective vocations, Mr. E. Smith being a merchant and E. Farrer being a physican. The fact, however, of the former being a married man and interested in the town in more than a professional sense, the latters personal and professional popularity was not sufficient to carry the day, for him. So far as the men were concerned it soon became apparent that neither candidate had much the percentage of the other, but it so happened that an adherent of Smith's suggested voting the ladies. The other side was not prepared for the furious exercise of the right of suffrage manifested by the opposite sex, nor had they time to marshal their lady auxiliaries at the polls, and as a consequence Mr. Smith's majority was fifteen. Moral: Eternal vigilance is the price of carrying elections. This is the first instance of the exercise of the right of female suffrage that has ever come under my personal observation, and I was somewhat surprised at the amount of enthusiasm displayed. It was, thought, and remarked on the street, "what infernal nonsense." Of course nobody objects to women's voting if they so elect, but the masculine argument is, "if we cannot manage affairs who can?" Bel Thistlethwaite (I wish she would choose an easier name), says that if woman may not meddle with men's affairs then let the men refrain from meddling with women's affairs. Very good. But then isn't this doctrine a very narrow view of the situation. Isn't this splitting the blankets, this dissolution of partnership a selfish view, and portending the banishment of sentiment and love? Are not my mother's interests identical with mine, my sister's and my wife's? Is it to be supposed for an instant that I would sacrifice their interests? What do I poke my nose into their affairs for? Not from meddlesomeness, surely, but to give them the benefit of my superior judgment, should I chance to possess it. Why do women seek absolute independence. To gratify caprice. Bel says the laws are not just to woman. If woman in having her swing finds legal impediments in the way, let it be remembered that the actions of men are circumscribed as well. In the courts the women certainly have the percentage, and if occasionally she is not the boss of her own household the right of suffrage would not alter things in the least. Woman's status in civilization is regulated by physical and mental laws, and these can no more be altered by her independence than can the relations of the earth to the sun be altered. Nature will have its course. Woman is neither functionally nor temperamentally adapted to masculine avocations. The maternal obligation is paramount to all others, and while social forms may interfere with it sometimes, to curtail or modify it by dabbling in masculine affairs amounts to little less than a crime. Temperamentally how many women are adapted to meet the commonest exigencies of public life. Bel may retort, how many men are? There are blockheads among the men it must be admitted, but men are not addicted to hysterics, nor are they governed by caprice. Hysterical, capricious men never figure prominently in the affairs of town, city or state. Bel, I am of the opinion, could skunk 999 men out of a thousand in the administration of public affairs, but how many Bel Thistlethwaithe's are there in Canada? Bel is only "funning." Her letters reveal her womanly instincts, and woman like, possessing the ability to talk she must needs ventilate her delightful conceits.

JOHN VS. THE QUEEN.

The Case in the Supreme Court--The Appeal Dismissed and the Conviction Sustained.

The Toronto Globe, in its report of the cases heard before the Supreme Court, says that the case of Edwin John vs. the Queen was one of considerable importance. It was an appeal from the Supreme Court of British Columbia, affirming the conviction of the plaintiff, dated May 17, 1887, for criminal assault, whereunder he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. As already stated, the appeal was dismissed, but without costs, as it was a criminal case. The four judges were unanimous, and therefore seem to have concluded that they had jurisdiction to give a decision, notwithstanding the death of Mr. Justice Henry, and Justice Gwynne's absence when the case was argued. In this, and in the other cases wherein Justice Henry took part, the court appears to have concluded to give judgment where a dissenting opinion of the late judge, if he were alive to give it, would make no difference in the result. Justice Strong seemed to consider the conviction within section 183 of the Act, but even if there was any doubt on this point he considered that the conviction should be affirmed and sustained under sub-section 2 of sec. 24. He had a written judgment. Chief Justice Ritchie delivered an oral judgment, stating that upon the facts he would have been glad to have come to a different conclusion. The facts, he observed, were not in question of course, but they were before the court as it happened. As a point of law he considered an "assault with intent to commit the offence" an attempt to commit the same within the meaning of the act. He had struggled to come to a different conclusion, but regretted that the law was against the plaintiff—(John.) He confirmed the conviction, the other judges merely concurred with Justice Strong. The Chief Justice further stated that, individually, he was of opinion that upon the facts contained in the record before the court it would be becoming on the court to represent the present case to the Minister of Justice as one for consideration and executive clemency. All the other judges assented to this in turn, except Taschereau, who interposed, saying they had no jurisdiction, whereupon Judge Strong retorted that it was not a question of jurisdiction but of propriety, and cited a recent Privy Council case in which like action had been taken. It is understood that the Registrar of the Supreme Court will prepare the documents for presentation to the Minister of Justice with as little delay as possible. C. Robinson, Q. C., instructed by Messrs. A. P. McIntyre and Lewis, agents for Hon. Theo. Davie, Q. C., of Victoria, argued the case for the plaintiff.

VICTORIA DISTRICT.

Meeting at West Saanich--In Favor of McIlmoyl.

The meeting was called to order and Mr. Bryant was appointed chairman. Mr. Geo. H. Sluggett acted as secretary.

The chairman announced the object of the meeting and introduced—

Mr. Jas. Tolmie, who proclaimed himself a government supporter who reserved to himself the utmost freedom of action. He was opposed to the increase in taxation, and said there was a good deal of ill-feeling in the manner of doing the road work. Local men were preferred for fixing the roads. Changes had been made in the School Act, the cities having now to aid in meeting the expenses of education. (Applause.)

Mr. J. T. McIlmoyl was received with applause. He said that he was a candidate through no desire of his own, and was the choice of the people at the convention. He dealt with the increase in taxation, pointing out that it was not a plank in the government's platform at last election. There was no justification for so large an increase. Farms were lying waste on account of excessive taxation, which was more onerous in this province than in any other. The people were the government and have the right to say what taxes they will pay. The school system was closely allied with that of education. If a common school education be given to each child within the province, the government is doing its duty; and the establishment of high schools at the expense of the province is unjust. The latter should be self supporting (applause). There was a strong feeling against the manner in which money was appropriated, and if Mr. Tolmie were elected the same policy would continue. He held that the increase of the revenue should enable the government to keep the expenditure and revenue within the same limits. Mr. McIlmoyl made a lengthy, impartial and convincing speech, and was loudly cheered on taking his seat.

Mr. Anderson spoke in the interest of Mr. Tolmie, and was replied to by Mr. McIlmoyl. After a speech from Mr. Sluggett the meeting adjourned.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Chicago, June 21—When the afternoon session of the convention was opened a new feature was noticed. It was a display of campaign handkerchiefs marked "Protection for American industries." They were to be seen in all parts of the building.

Ferrell, of Texas, seconded Harrison's nomination, and was followed by Rector, of the same state, in a strong plea for the Indianian. Both Texas and Indiana warmly applauded the speaker at the termination of his address.

Gollinger, of New Hampshire, was the next one to second Harrison. Much amusement was caused by some one who evidently thought the speaker's name was Gallagher, shouting "Let her go Gallagher," which was taken up and lasted for a few seconds. Gollinger made reference to Blaine and again the convention hall was the scene of a great tumult, the delegates cheering and yelling until the noise was deafening. Iowa was reached and Hepburn rose and placed Allison in nomination. His speech evoked frequent outbursts of applause. Maryland, Massachusetts, and several of the territories seconded the nomination, the enthusiasm at this point having reached the highest pitch There was great applause when the name of Russell Alger was presented by Hon. Robt. E. Fraser, seconded by Chas. E. J. Noyes, of Massachusetts. Referring to the democratic "bandanna," Noyes said that "against the snuff tag of democracy the republicans presented the stars and stripes and inscribed protection for American industries." New York state being called, Senator Hiscock made a decidedly forcible speech, nominating Chauncey M. Depew. He made a point when he said that, although Depew was president of a railroad system, no wrecks strewed its path. At the conclusion of Hiscock's speech the New York delegation mounted upon chairs and endeavored to start a furore, but the effort failed. Hartley, of Minnesota, seconded the nomination, and pledged a 50,000 Republican majority in the state if Depew was nominated. Ohio was next called, and immediately there was a scene of enthusiasm from all parts of the great hall. George Hastings, of Pennsylvania, who was to nominate Sherman, was compelled to wait till the audience exhausted itself cheering.

Governor Foraker seconded Sherman's nomination. Simultaneously with his appearance a large floral tribute was carried to the platform. It bore the inscription, "No rebel flags shall be surrendered while I am governor." Prolonged cheers greeted him and it was several minutes before he could proceed. When he had concluded there was great applause and waving of flags, followed by an outburst of singing, "Marching through Georgia." Prof. Langston (colored), of Virginia, and Delegate Dazac, of North Carolina, a black negro, also spoke in advocacy of Sherman. Charles Henry Smith, made a short but forcible argument, favoring the nomination of Edward B. Fitler, mayor of Philadelphia. Senator Spooner, of Wisconsin, then put Governor Ruskin's nomination at the close of his speech, and there was no response.

THE CONVENTION.

Chicago, June 22—Result of the first ballott: Alger 84, Allison 72, Harrison 79, Hawley 13, Ingalls 28, Depew 99, Phelps 25, Fitler 29, Rusk 25, Gresham 114, Sherman 229, Blaine 33, McKinley 2 Balance scattering.

There being no choice a second ballot was proceeded with and resulted as follows:—

Alger 116, Allison 75, Gresham 108, Lincoln 3, Rusk 20, Ingalls 16, Blaine 32, Depew 99, Harrison 95, Sherman 249, McKinley 3, Phelps 18.

Third ballot was taken with the following result: Alger 122, Depew 90, Harrison 94, Phelps 5, Lincoln 2, Sherman 244, Miller 2, Allison 88, Gresham 123, Rusk 16, Blaine 35, McKinley 8. A recess was now taken until 7 p. m.

The Convention had now been in session for nearly an hour and a half. The auditorium of the building was the scene of the greatest excitement, when it was announced that a third ballot was necessary. Excited conferences were noted among the delegations in almost every part of the hall. Balloting went on and numerous changes were made, but the big States remained by their favorite sons. The third ballot was completed at 1:57 p. m.

The battle waged in convention hall this morning was a most stubborn one. The anticipated strength of the Sherman forces was not realized, and it is not expected to develop further. The inevitable stampede to Blaine will be next in order. It is believed Foraker is working in Blaine's interests and that he will show his hand early. The Californians are convinced that Blaine will be nominated. The programme of Blaine's managers is to use the pronounced Blaine forces in the convention in such a manner as to preserve the equilibrium among the leading candidates through the several ballots. Then by creating the impression in the convention that neither Sherman, Alger, Harrison, Depew or Gresham can obtain the nomination, Blaine will be put to a point to carry off the prize by the unanimous vote of the convention. Delegates who came here regarding Blaine as out of the race are amazed to see men whom they most had a right to expect would affirm sincerity and truthfulness of his declarations, scheming to secure his nominations.

CYCLONE.

Wichita, Kansas, June 22—A cyclone swept over the northern part of Sedywick County last night, doing considerable damage and fatally injuring two people.

"CURSE THEM."

Louisville, Ky., June 22—Wm. Patterson was hanged this morning for the murder of Jennie Ponnan, a servant girl. Patterson protested his innocence on the scaffold. He strangled slowly to death. Four minutes after the drop fell he said, "curse them," and then, "Lord save me." His struggles were frightful.

El Paso, June 20—In accordance with an act of the last legislature the colored people of El Paso celebrated yesterday the emancipation of their race with great eclat. The day was celebrated in commemoration of a popular vote which in 1865 ratified the abolition of slavery in Texas.

ODESSA MILL BURNED.

Dagett, Cala., June 20—The Odessa Mining Company's Mill was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $8,000; insurance $5,000.

ATTEMPTED MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Sacramento, Cala., June 20—Yesterday afternoon Mike Brink was arrested for assault to murder, having fired several shots while intoxicated at Arthur Wilson, a stable proprietor. Brink had hired a horse and buggy and was abusing the horse when Wilson endeavored to take possession and was shot at by Brink. Brink hanged himself last night in his cell in jail.

A MINE BURNED.

Calico, Cala., June 21—The Alhambra quartz mine was burned down last night. The loss is about $20,000.

BLAINE AND PULLMAN.

Kingston, June 22—A rumor is afloat that when Blaine has completed his present tour through England and Scotland with Carnegie he will return to spend a few weeks among the Thousand Islands as a guest of Sir Geo. Pullman, whose $100,000 granite palace on Pullman Island is nearing completion. The people who are crowding to these summer resorts are much interested in the rumor.

HON. WILFRED LAURIER.

Toronto, Ont., June 22—James Trow, one of the Liberal whips in the House of Commons has received a letter from the Hon. Wilfred Laurier, in which the Liberal leader says he will be unable to make the promised tour through Ontario this summer, but hopes to find an opportunity to deliver two or three addresses in August, one of which will likely be given at a joint picnic to be held under the auspices of the Hamilton and Toronto Young Men's Liberal Clubs, probably at Oakville.

A $45,000 SUIT.

Montreal, June 22—In the matter of the Ontario Car Co., of London, Ont., against W. Farwell, of Sherbrooke, Duncan McIntyre and W. C. Van Horne, as trustees of the South Eastern Railway, judgment was given this morning for the plaintiff for $45,000 and interest for the past two years.

CONDOLING WITH THE QUEEN.

Ottawa, June 22—Before the County Council adjourned Mr. Ira Morgan moved a resolution of condolence with Queen Victoria and the widowed Princess, on the death of Emperor Frederick, and recommended that Sir John Macdonald be requested to forward the resolution to Her Majesty.

BECOMING AGRESSIVE.

London, June 22—The Liberals have decided to follow up their victory of Tuesday last by challenging the whole administration of affairs in Ireland.

DR. MACKENZIE'S OPINION.

The Hague, June 22—Doctor Mackenzie has started for London. In an interview he said he had parted on friendly terms with all the German doctors except one. He had been fully aware of the gangrenous nature of Emperor Frederick's malady since February, but if he admitted it a regency would have been the result.

REPRISALS DEMANDED.

Paris, June 21—The city is greatly agitated to-day over the expulsion from Berlin of De Payocrdier, correspondent of Gaulois and Jules Ransom, correspondent of Matin. Gaulois has reprinted the letter of De Payoerdier, written from San Remo at the time of Frederick's visit to that place, which it is alleged contains statements reflecting upon the present German Emperor. Evenement and Intransigeant demands that the French Government make reprisals.

ST. ANN'S CONVENT.

Examination of Pupils--Decorations --Prize List.

The yearly examinations of pupils attending St. Ann's Convent, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the splendid edifice on Humboldt street. The examination hall was artistically decorated; the drapery hanging from the ceiling blending harmoniously with the beautiful paintings and drawings on the walls. On the eastern wall, at the rear of the raised dais on which the pupils went through their very creditable examinations, hangs a beautiful oil painting of Mount Baker, by Miss Van Volkenburgh, daughter of Mr. B. Van Volkenburgh of this city. Beneath the oil painting hangs a number of plaques painted by the same young lady in a most artistic manner. On the northern wall hangs a beautiful oil painting by Miss McInnis, while directly opposite is a splendid crayon drawing of Ald. S. T. Styles' residence, by Miss Lizzie Styles, daughter of the worthy Alderman. A crayon drawing of a bouquet of flowers, by Miss Fitters, attracts most favorable comment. On the south side of the examination hall is to be seen the fancy and plain needlework which the pupils are taught by the worthy Sisters, and amidst the heaps of knitting, crocheting, darning and fancy work it is truly wonderful to notice how apt the scholars become in their useful as well as ornamental work. The embroidery work by Miss Watkins, of Nanaimo, is deserving of great praise. A large embroidered chair and ottoman, the work of the young lady, received much praise from the large number of ladies and gentlemen present at the examination, which was richly deserved, for the work is most commendable.

Before 2 o'clock a large number of parents and friends of the pupils arrived at the Convent and were provided with seats in the examination room. The exercises commenced at 2 o'clock.

A SENSITIVE BULLY.

Whenever our morning contemporary is forced to the wall by an exposure of its inconsistencies and the personal animus by which it is actuated, its opponents are charged with indulging in "personal abuse"—they are said to have been "worsted in argument"—and having thus delivered itself, with becoming dignity it retires from the field. It is the old tactics over again. The TIMES is not aware that it indulged in "personal abuse" in dealing with the FEE license case. It is true that we have pointed out that the system of warfare adopted by the Colonist was of the cowardly, guerilla description, and proceeded upon the doctrine that the end to be attained justified the means. We proved beyond the possibility of a doubt that Mayor GRANT was not responsible for the granting of a license to Mr. FEE, of which fact the Colonist writer is fully cognizant. But the political bias of our contemporary is greater than its love of the truth, and prevents it from doing justice to an opponent. The facts are misrepresented and slanderous imputations are made, and for what purpose? Simply to damage Mr. GRANT in the eyes of the electors, and not for the purpose of rectifying the injury which it is generally admitted has been done to the community by departing from the policy of the licensing board for several years past. We have characterized such conduct as cowardly and vicious, and if our contemporary is determined to construe our remarks as a personal attack we are not going to worry ourselves very much over its assumed sensitiveness. One cannot very well criticise intemperance without reflecting upon the intemperate; or censure transgressions of any kind while applauding the transgressor; and if our contemporary will persist in vilifying others it must expect not retaliation—but "punishment that will fit the crime." It must learn to "play fair."

DEFEATS OF THE ENGLISH GOVERNMENT.

The Tory Government of Lord SALISBURY looks as if it were on its last legs, and as if it could not last much longer. The Tory party is in a minority in the House of Commons and government but a minority is never satisfactory. Only once during the last thirty or forty years have the Tories had a majority in Parliament. Sometimes the extreme Radicals would place and keep them in office, as happened to the late Lord DERBY during the three times that he was Premier of England, but then he never was in office many months at a time. Sometimes the Irish party would put the Tories in office, and at the present moment the "crutch on which they lean," as Lord RANDOLPH CHURCHILL put it, is the Liberal Unionist party, and as soon as it is tired of the Tories out the Tories go.

The course of recent events has not been a cheerful one for the government. The other day on the motion of Mr. HENEAGE, brother of Admiral HENEAGE and one of Mr. GLADSTONE's late Cabinet, the government got off by the skin of its teeth, having only a majority of eight votes. A week later Mr. JENNINGS, the Tory member for Stockport, proposed a resolution with regard to the abuses and corruptions in the Admiralty office, and actually defeated the government by a majority of nineteen votes. A week later, Mr. JOHN MORLEY, a flag lieutenant of Mr. GLADSTONE, defeated the government by a majority of no less than thirty on a clause in the local Government Bill. Simultaneously with these defeats in the House of Commons, the electors in Southampton, in England, and of the Ayr Burghs, in Scotland, have filled two seats with Gladstonians, reversing the decisions of the general election by tremendous numbers and thereby deducting on a division four votes from the Government, which is a very serious matter.

In consequence of these disastrous defeats Lord SALISBURY held a meeting yesterday of the Tory party to consider its affairs. The proceedings read like a meeting of creditors. Lord SALISBURY, referring to the defeat sustained at the hands of the Tory, Mr. JENNINGS, in the House, plaintively and humbly beseeched the party not to bring forward resolutions or amendments without first consulting the Government; but it remains to be seen whether the Tory party, as a whole, will consent to have its hands tied like this and to be treated in so very cavalier and dictatorial a way as this would indicate. Mr. W. H. SMITH followed Lord SALISBURY and "declared he would not "retain his office a moment unless "he had the full confidence of Con-"servative members of Parliament." The two divisions in the House which were the immediate cause of the meeting of creditors, prove that he has not the confidence he speaks of, so why does not the leader of the House of Commons resign his office? The want of confidence in the Tory Government is most pronounced in the constituencies, and as we have seen, it has extended to the House of Commons itself, so it does not require much foresight to predict that the Tory Government—the Government of a minority of the House—with its policy of coercion in Ireland, must soon give way to a really Liberal Government with Mr. GLADSTONE at its head.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

Important Meeting of the Congregation—Elders Elected—A New Church to be Built.

According to announcement a well attended meeting of St. Andrew's congregation was held in the church last (Thursday) evening. The pastor, Rev. P. McF. McLeod, opened the meeting with devotional exercises, after which he stated that one of the objects for which the meeting was called was to nominate and elect a couple of the members of the congregation to the eldership.

Mr. John Finlayson, clerk of the session, nominated Messrs. Thos. M. Henderson and Thos. McCammon. The motion was seconded, and no other candidates having been proposed, they were declared duly elected. The ordination services will be held at a future date, due notice of which will be given.

The Rev. Mr. McLeod at some length then entered into an explanation of the difficulties which presented themselves in connection with the thorough and efficient working of the congregation's spiritual affairs. Since his induction here he had met the greatest of kindness at the hands of the people. He was convinced that in coming to Victoria the guiding hand of a higher power than his had helped him. There was here a fertile field for the church to perform its work, but in order to be in a position to do so efficiently greater facilities should be placed at his disposal. Since his induction the increase in the Sabbath school alone had been of the most encouraging nature. On the 4th of March last the attendance at the Sabbath school was 37, with four teachers. Now the average attendance was 100 and the teaching staff had increased to 18, including officers. For the accommodation of so rapidly increasing a school as this was, rooms must be provided. Then there was another, and a very important work not yet inaugurated by him—that of bible classes for young men and young women. Repeatedly he had been asked the question when he was to begin this work. Unless a canvas tent were erected by him near the church it would be impossible for him to undertake this highly necessary work. Allusion was also made to the increase in the membership of the church at last communion and the probability for another increase almost as large, at the next communion. He, in conjunction with the session and the managers, felt that these were responsibilities which were certain to increase with the expansion of the city and the growth of the congregation. They were responsibilities which could not be shirked, and if their pastor was to work as zealously in the cause of the Master as he was expected the congregation must aid him and strengthen his hands, for he alone, single handed could not overcome the serious obstacles which existed. For the managers the speaker explained the system of making regular stated weekly donations to the funds of the church by what is now known as the envelope system which has been found to work so satisfactorily in other congregations. The Sunday collections so far had exceeded their most sanguine expectations, but desiring to still further increase the revenue of the church, in order to enable the managers to carry out their various schemes satisfactorily it had been decided to bring the subject before the meeting. Elsewhere the system in force was that each seat or pew holder was supplied with envelopes for all the Sundays in a given quarter of the year. These were deposited on the collection plate every Sunday and then duly credited by the financial secretary to the party in whose name the number on the envelope stood.

A discussion then arose on the subject in which the Hon. John Robson, Messrs. A. R. Gray, Thos. Russell, Thos. M. Henderson, John Finlayson and H. P. Heisterman, expressed their views. All approved of the object and it was finally decided to recommend its adoption by the congregation. Circulars will be issued, explaining the system, to the congregation next Sunday, so as to enable the managers to begin it on the 1st of July.

The next and most important matter connected with the meeting was the church accommodation. The Rev. Mr. McLeod stated that already he had visited families the heads of which attended the church. In his pastoral visitation book he had already a list of 425 constituting the membership of these families. The seating accommodation of our church was for only 280. All these had already been taken up. There was no room for an increase, and already numerous applicants for sittings had been made which could not be satisfied. Others again had been changed from one position to another. This had created some annoyance; but it could not be helped. He was aware of several families who could only get two sittings, and as the other members did not care to encroach on others sittings they did not come to church at all, but either remained at home or strolled about during the hours of sacred worship. The present place of worship was entirely too small for the requirements of the church. This fact had been recognized by the session and the managers as well as by others. The alterations of enlarged accommodation had been discussed by himself and several of the most prominent members of the congregation. The opinion was general that the present building could not be improved except at great cost and then it would not be a modern edifice. He was in a position to state that if the congregation decided upon a new house of worship the work would be undertaken and carried through successfully. The managers he understood had already taken the initiative in the movement. He believed that once a new building was undertaken by the congregation new life and vigor would be infused into its members, as well as a spirit of zeal and emulation. He had explained fully the difficulties which beset him in his work, and the matter was in the hands of the meeting.

Mr. Thomas Russell moved that a committee be named to make inquiries and report upon the subject of building a new church, selecting a site and other matters connected therewith, and report at an adjourned meeting of the congregation. The Hon. John Robson in seconding the motion endorsed all that the pastor had stated.

Dr. Milne thought it would be advisable for the managers to submit a well digested scheme for so great an undertaking as the erection of a new church—modern in all its details—would undoubtedly be.

Hon. John Robson stated that the managers had a most eligible site in view. It was a large lot 100x138 feet, and could be secured on reasonable terms.

After some further remarks it was decided to leave the whole matter in the hands of the managers with power to add to their number and to report at a meeting to be held at the call of the Chairman. The benediction was then pronounced and the meeting adjourned.

From the feeling which prevaded the meeting it is almost certain that within a few months a new place of worship for this influential congregation will be in progress. The new church will be an ornament to the city, for it will be of modern design, and in its arrangements will embrace that which experience has demonstrated to be what is required for a leading church. It will be a credit to the city of Victoria and a monument to the energy and enterprise of Presbyterianism in British Columbia.

THE SAN FRANCISCO MAIL.

The Government Recognizes the Obligation to Continue Service.

Our readers are already familiar with the various steps that have been taken by the Board of Trade, the Local Government, and our representatives at Ottawa, to obtain a decisive reply to the demand that the terms of Union should be maintained in their integrity by a continuation of the San Francisco mail service. The replies from Ottawa—and there have been a score or more on the subject—have invariably been of a non-committal character, promising no definite line of action further than that the terms of Union would not be disregarded. The City Council also joined in petitioning the Government to continue inviolate the original compact, and in reply to its memorial His Worship Mayor Grant this morning received the following reassuring reply. The minute of Council does not say in plain and unmistakable English that a subsidy will be paid to the San Francisco steamers, which would have removed all doubts from the minds of our leading merchants, who have taken an active interest in the matter; but it declares that the obligation created by the terms of Union is fully recognized and promises to see that it will be maintained in its integrity. The correspondence is the most satisfactory that has yet been received. It is as follows:

OTTAWA, June 13th, 1888.

SIR:—With reference to your telegram to the Right Honorable the President of the Privy Council, transmitting a resolution of the City Council of Victoria, relative to the withdrawal of the mail subsidy from steamers between Victoria and San Francisco, as therein set forth, I am now to transmit for your information copy of a report of a committee of the Honorable the Privy Council bearing on the subject, approved by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in Council, on the 31st ultimo.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

G. POWELL,

Under Secretary of State.

His Worship the Mayor of Victoria, B. C.

[Copy of a certified copy of a report of a committee of the Honorable the Privy Council, approved by His Excellency the Administrator of the Government in Council, on the 31st May, 1888:]

On a report dated 30th May, 1888, from the Postmaster-General, stating that he has had under consideration a telegram from the Mayor of Victoria, B. C., to the Right Hon. the President of the Council, transmitting a resolution of the City Council of Victoria, in which, referring to the withdrawal of the mail subsidy from the sailing of steamers plying between Victoria and San Francisco, the Council express the fear that this may lead to a discontinuance of the service, and deprecate such a result as involving a breach of the Terms of Union between the Province of British Columbia and the rest of the Dominion.

The Postmaster-General recommends that the Mayor of Victoria be informed that the Government has no reason to apprehend that the service will be withdrawn; that so far as mail service is concerned the Province of British Columbia is in a much more favorable situation to-day than at any previous period; that a restoration of the mails to the direct steamship route to San Francisco, would not be in the interest of correspondence, but that, as regards the maintenance of the connection by steamer and the transmission of mails thereby for those who desire to use that mode of conveyance between Victoria and San Francisco, the Government fully recognizes the obligation created by the Terms of Union with British Columbia, and will see that it is maintained in its integrity.

The committee concurring in the above report advise that the Secretary of State be authorized to communicate a copy of this minute, if approved, to the Mayor of Victoria, British Columbia.

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever. —Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until with a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

By Taking

three bottles of this medicine I have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky. ††

BISHOP LEMMENS.

Sketch of the Life of the New Bishop of Vancouver Island.

We hail with joy the announcement of the appointment of Rev. John N. Lemmens, as the successor of the late lamented Archbishop Seghers, and we trust that the rumor of his intended refusal will prove false.

Father Lemmens was born at Schimmert, in the Province of Limburg, Holland, in 1850, and having received his elementary education in his native town, he pursued his classical studies at Herve, Belgium, and finished them with the greatest success at the Seminary of Roldduc, in Holland.

Resolving to devote himself to the arduous life of a missionary, he went to Louvain in 1873, and on the very successful completion of his theological course, was ordained at Brussels in March, 1875, by the Papal Nuncio, Mgr. Catani, now Cardinal.

When preparing to set out for his selected mission in Vancouver Island, he was delayed by sickness until 1876, when in company with the devoted missionary, Father Nicolaye, he landed at Victoria in August.

In his new sphere of life he has had an opportunity of becoming well acquainted with the Diocese and its wants, as he labored zealously in various missions until 1884, when Father Joncken, Administrator, being disabled by sickness, chose him as his representative at the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore.

After the Council Father Lemmens paid a short visit to his parents in Europe, and returned in the spring of 1885 to resume his missionary labors among the Indians.

The Bishop-elect is a profound theologian and deep scholar, knowing many languages, both European and American. It is difficult to see how the Holy Father could have made a more suitable selection, and we hope we shall soon be called upon to chronicle the consecration of another youthful Prelate in the ranks of the American Hierarchy.—New York Freeman's Journal.

COLLINS VS. THE CORPORATION.

To the Editor of The Times:

Sir:—The proposition of Mr. Hendry, contained in your columns of last evening, resolves itself into a question of veracity between Mr. Hendry supplying information in October, 1887, for the purpose of compiling a map of the Victoria water works, and the same gentleman supplying information to advance the interests of the case of Collins vs. the Corporation of Victoria in June, 1888.

Peter Summerfield.

Victoria, June 21st, 1888.

GRANTING LIQUOR LICENSES.

To The Editor of The Times:

Sir,—The extraordinary conduct of the Bench of Magistrates at its last sitting in granting a saloon license to Mr. D. F. Fee in opposition to the oft repeated petitions of the residents in the immediate neighborhood, where the said saloon has been located, has aroused a widespread feeling of indignation at the abuse of authority, of which the said magistrates have been guilty. As you have very properly said in commenting on this matter, that a system which could allow of such a wrong to be perpetrated must be very sadly defective, and calls for immediate amendment. Some of the gentlemen concerned in the infliction of that wrong on a quiet and respectable neighborhood, endeavor to excuse, or justify, the act on the ground that they had no option to do otherwise, the statute making it imperative on the Bench to grant the license. That such is not the case will appear from the subjoined excerpt from the Licenses Ordinance, 1887, which vests in the Bench of Magistrates ample discretionary powers in the granting of licenses: Sec. 9, "No license shall be granted to any person for the sale of wine, spirits, beer, or other fermented or intoxicating liquor by retail, unless * * upon the certificate in writing of at least two Justices of the Peace, granted in open court, * * due regard being had in the grant of such certificate by the Justices to the requirements and convenience of the public."

Okanagan News.

The Times' correspondent writes that P. O. Inspector Fletcher passed through here some days since on his way to Rock Creek to establish a postoffice there. It will prove a great boon to this important mining camp.

Mr. Joseph Christian, the genial proprietor of the Victoria Hotel, Vernon, is now manager as well.

May was a very warm month; the thermometer some days registered upwards of 90° in the shade. June has set in with frequent showers and cooler weather.

Crops are looking well, with the exception of fall-sown grain, which was partially winter-killed.

The creeks are very high at present. The Siwashes have been catching plenty of salmon.

There is to be competition in the carrying of freight on the lake. Messrs. Portes-as and Gillies have taken the Red Star steamer overland from Spallumcheen Landing to Okanagan Lake. They are overhauling and making her considerably larger. Capt. Shorts of the Jubilee will shortly have a formidable rival.

Mining affairs are very quiet on Mission Creek. Nearly all the whites have deserted their claims but fifteen of the "Heathen Chinee" are still working there.

A New Scotch Yacht.

Still dissatisfied with the defeat of the Thistle last year another new yacht will be sent across the ocean and will arrive in America about the middle of August. Mr. Edward Burgess' yachts have met the productions of the leading naval architects of Britain; Richardson of the Irex and Stranger; Watson of the Thistle; Bever-Webb of the Genesta and Galatea; Harvey of the Bedouin and Miranda—and thus far he has been successful. This time he is to meet a "40-footer" from the hands of "Wull" Fife, jr., of Fairey, Scotland, the designer and builder of the Clara. The Burgess type of boat of the Clara's length has never been built; consequently, no data can be had from which to make comparisons. The Clara, with John Barr at the stick, was certainly a wonder, and she beats all the American yachts of her length. The new "40-footer" is completed, and is ready for a trip across. Capt. Charles Barr, of the Shona, is to sail her across, and he leaves Boston for Scotland the latter part of next week. Capt. Barr has had considerable experience in navigation, and sailed across in the Clara when she came out. During his absence the Shona will be in charge of Mate John Barr, jr. The new boat will be a moderately wide, deep cutter for her length, with 12 feet beam and 9 feet draught, with all her lead ballast outside. She will be strictly cutter rig.

Well Done Bell.

ELECTRIC FORCE.

The Great Fundamental Principle of the Universe and its Power to Restore Health to Humanity.

Experiments by scientists are constantly and surely proving electricity to be the great motor power of creation. Electricity is the most powerful chemical agent, as well as the basis of chemical action. It is the primal element of light and heat; the promoter of life, and the sustainer of health.

Disease yields readily to its magnetic touch, and even unrelenting death is averted by its presence. Thousands of afflicted and suffering bear witness to its healing power. The electro-magnetic as practiced by the Drs. Darrin has revolutionized the practice of medicine, as is shown by the following

Export Duty on Logs.

The Customs regulations are somewhat ambiguous as to what constitute a log upon which an export duty can be charged. A pile is by some construed to mean a log out of which shingle bolts could be manufactured; by others no such interpretation can be deemed possible. A case calling for a decision has arisen at Burrard Inlet, and the matter will be referred to the Customs department at Ottawa for a ruling.

A Hint.

The favorite "Brussels Kid Glove," in summer shades, reached the "Lansdowne House" this day. John Partridge, Propr.*

A New Lumbering Mill.

Mr. W. H. Higgins, of New Westminster, has returned from the Sound, whither he had been for some days inspecting the plans for the big mill to be erected by Messrs. Ross, McLaren & Co., a short distance above the Royal City on the Fraser river, and which will be one of the largest mills on the coast. The firm are also having prepared for them specifications for a powerful tug for towing logs and the largest vessels; thus doing away with the many delays caused by dependence on the towing companies.

Attempt to Escape.

Whilst the chain gang was returning to the Provincial gaol yesterday afternoon a man named John Hall made a dash for liberty. He did not run far before the guard overhauled him and brought him back to the gaol. Hall was convicted for selling liquor to Indians and his term of imprisonment was to expire in nine days. No reason can be assigned for the escapade excepting that the man is greatly pleased with the treatment accorded prisoners in the Provincial gaol.

A Refutation.

Mr. Charles Hall, who drove Mr. Gardner to the wharf last night, called at this office in connection with the card published by a couple of Chinamen in this morning's paper and stated that Mr. Gardner arrived on the wharf as the white passengers were landing, the Big Show band at the same time organizing at corner of Wharf and Yates streets to start up town. At the most it could not have been more than five minutes from the time the gangplank was put in position until Mr. Gardner arrived at the steamer.

Nothing New.

The American papers are making a great ado over what is claimed to be "the boldest building operations ever attempted, that which is now being performed at the New York Times office. A new thirteen-storey granite building is being constructed around and in substitution for the old building. The work of publishing the paper in the old building is going on as usual. Every foot of the old building will be wiped out bit by bit as the work proceeds. The new one will be one of the handsomest buildings in the city. This is nothing new or very surprising. Last year the building in which the Victoria TIMES is published was practically rebuilt. The operations of transforming the office were continued for several weeks. The publication of THE TIMES in its daily and weekly editions were carried on uninterruptedly. If such a feat can be achieved in Victoria without any fuss or comment, surely a parallel case can be accomplished in New York.

Victoria, June 22. GARDNER.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

The Nurses for the Hospital—Chinese at the Dry Dock.

Dr. J. S. Helmcken, in his letter to one of our morning newspapers of the 21st instant, anent the Jubilee Hospital, truly says that Victoria "would become the seat of education and learning, &c.," and so it should. Here you have a city of some 30 years old, without either college or university. Prince Albert, far away on the Saskatchewan, now 300 miles and till lately 600 miles from a line of railway, has had a chartered university and a college since 1883; yet that city, so remote from outside civilization, is only in the twelfth year of its existence! The Major, while agreeing with the writer in the main on the subject of the letter in question, begs to take exception in regard to the employment of what Dr. Helmcken calls "the Protestant Sisters." Would not the countenancing of these "Sisters" exclusively for the cure of body and soul give the institution a color of sectarianism? How will the Presbyterian, the Baptist and Methodist (or the Mennonite—you're going to have him here shortly) who will no doubt have a say in the matter, be willing to accept the cure of any of the souls belonging to their respective charges, being committed to the care of such preceptors in the tenets of the reformed religion! The doctor says these "sisters" are Protestants. If asked they'll tell you, "no, they're Catholic." They are, as stated, well-trained nurses, sympathetic and all that; so are the genuine nuns—none better. These "sisters'" qualifications on that score stand above dispute. But with all "such excellent qualifications are the ministers of other denominations willing to delegate the exercise of their sacred duties, especially that ghostly consolation to the sick, mayhap the dyng, members of their church to the professed sisters of the order? The Major fancies not, else they'd be false to the solemn vows sworn at ordination. If the Jubilee Hospital is to be carried on under such management, it were as well by far to secure a detachment from St. Ann's Convent at once. There's one thing, they would be genuine anyway, and not a parody. Trained nurses under the Miss Nightingale system would certainly be an advantage. These protestant (?) sisters being, as asserted, well skilled in the art of medicine as well as that of religion, were they employed where would be the advantage of any other "drilled" medical service? If the Jubilee Hospital is to succeed, sectarianism, or any semblance of it, must be avoided; and altho' the Major is a churchman—none staunocher—while agreeing with Dr. Helmcken that his "sisters" are superior, competent nurses—the very best—yet their employment as religious instructors in lieu of the ministry of the protestant denominations, would be a grave mistake. Employ these sisters, Hottentots, the Lamas from Thibet or the banks of the Amoor, any one, so long as they are competent to fill the bill; but no sectarianism if you don't want to have a Melee Hospital forever and a day. Things are bad enough now; what would they be then?

Reilly & Woods' big show played before a full house at the Victoria last evening. The Major was there as a deadhead, and as a matter of course occupied a front position with his kind about him. His Worship the Mayor, the Lady Mayoress and their kind on the left. The "gods" were in capital form, and helped to while away the long interval preparatory to the ringing up of the curtain with good-humored chaff, interspersed with a small free fight to give zest to the performance. The delay was unavoidable, owing to the late arrival of the troupe on the Sound boat. After a well executed selection by the orchestra of the Reilly & Woods Co., the curtain went up, and Messrs. Tierney and Wayne, with artistic talent, performed the negro minstrel act of "Colonel and the Major." The local hits were fully appreciated by the audience. Mlle Adie Wilson followed in her difficult performance on the revolving globe, executed with ease and grace, amidst thunders of applause. The great mimic, Pitrot, followed, drawing rounds of well merited approbation. The various well-known public characters of the day were mimicked to the very life. Mlle Forgardus, with her well trained birds and dog "Tige," delighted the audience, while Pat Reilly, was a whole show in himself, both as a delineator of the universal stage Irishman, to be met with nowhere else, and as a lightsing landscape artist of the London flag stone kind, in both of which he was the recipient of well merited applause. The usual basket of Victoria's chief product, flowers, were here presented in the usual form—this time, Oh! tell it not in Gath—to an actor! Victoria! Victoria! You're degenerating more and more, in spite of all the Major can do to reform your little abuses. The thing is painful; it hurts The Major's sensitiveness much; pray don't do it again. Miss Miller sang a few pretty serio-comic songs, and was very captivating in her costume, while the "Eight Roman Gladiators" fairly brought the house down, with their gracefully executed pose plastiques of ancient Rome's military. Messrs. Howard, Russel, Seeley and Talbert, as the Emperors of music were beyond compare; they would draw music out of anything from a cow bell and fish horn to a bassoon. They kept the audience in constant roars of laughter, and left the boards amidst all the signs of appreciation a well pleased audience are capable of offering. La Rue Grove, the Drum Major, can handle the staff in the Paddy Fannin style, very seldom to be met with in either Drum Majors, Town Majors, or Featherhead Majors of any kind. The acrobatic performance of the Nelson family was, to say the least, wonderful. Their agility and Indian rubber pliancy, was beyond imagination; they are true "acrobatic marvels," and succeeded in gaining the good graces of the audience from the pit to the throne of the "gods." The performance was brought to a conclusion by the pettit comedie of the "Lost Senator from Esquimalt." This little piece was a fit termination to the general performance, in which Miss F. Miller, Messrs. Reilly, Wayne and Tierney fully sustained their well earned repute in their several lines. "The Show" as a whole was void of any vulgarism or the slightest attempt likely to offend the most rigid moralist. It was enjoyed by the old, the young, the ladies, and above all by the children, who were bathed in a constant stream of laughter, fun and mirth from the beginning to the end. A good laugh assists a dull digestion. Go to night to the Victoria and have a jolly good time, especially as Pat is going to sketch local characters, including, if he can, that of

How are we going to settle the vexed question of the almond-eyed Celestials, which is assuming graver aspects every day, if our paternal Government, strictly against the advice of Parliament, will insist on employing these Chinese on every possible occasion. There was a rumor 'round Campbell's corner that Chinamen were employed in cleaning up the dry dock at Esquimalt in preference to our own flesh and blood. Determining to see for himself, the Major took his seat on the stage coach box, alongside of the Weller, St. of the Esquimalt route. He might have got off ere he crossed Rock Bay, for the loquacious Jarvey fully posted the Major on the subject long before reaching that classic neighborhood. Determined to see and hear for ourselves, we braved the dust, the shaking, jolting and rattling over a rough road, together with the conversation of one solitary female—she was a regiment in herself—and two of the sterner sex, all evidently natives of the Emerald Isle from the Coombe, or the neighborhood of Francis Street at that. "Be me sowl, spake av the divil an' he'll appear," as a countryman joined the party, was the last heard from them, owing to the noise of the machine, till the party alighted at Pat Dorgan's New Inn. Goodness knows there's nothing much new about the place, barring the paint on the words "New-Inn" over the door. Pat has chosen a nice, cosy spot for his whiskey mill; there's spiritual water over the way and well watered spirits opposite—thus "force opposes force." Alighting at the village of Esquimalt every lane, passage, backyard, door way on the left hand side bore the inviting sign "This way to the Dry Dock." With this indication, and guided by the tall chimney in the distance, we soon found ourselves in the dry dock precincts. The scene was neither animated or prepossessing. It wasn't certainly the former, for the "Johnnies" appeared to be anything but animated. The way they handled themselves plainly showed that they must be either working for the corporation or the government. "John" was, apparently on make believe, employed shifting coal, binders, painting iron work, &c. There appeared to be some score or so at work. Enquiry brought to knowledge that Capt. Devereaux was superintendent of the dock. A short while ago extra labor was required to clean and touch up things in a ship shape manner about the yard. So Capt. Devereaux determined to be economical and concluded that any labor required should be Chinese, thus showing the powers that be what zeal must have been exercised in order to save the Dominion Government a bit a day! Capt. Devereaux, had he enquired or wished, could have secured all the white labor needed at $2 a day or less; but the great lyhee was placed in requisition and the bargain struck. Now, are you the workingmen of not only Victoria but of the province of British Columbia, going to permit this outrage, perpetrated before your very eyes, to pass tamely by unnoticed and unseen! Where are your representatives to the Federal Parliament? Is this outrage on your rights and privileges, as guaranteed to you by the trusted ministers of the Crown, to be permitted to be perpetrated in your midst with impunity. Will you tamely sit down and pick up the crumbs that fall from the Chinaman's table? Bear in mind that it's by such means as this that that incubus which follows you, and shadows your steps, sapping up and drying all that's worth living for in your social existence, is encouraged and fostered in our land. The Federal Government have declared time upon time that Chinese labor was not to be employed under any guise whatever in any government work. Mayhap the government apologist sheet next door to the barber's, may explain in its usual lucid way all about Chinese labor at a dollar seventy-five a day. THE TOWN MAJOR.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

[Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q.C.]

Harry O'Reilly alias Allen, on remand from yesterday on a charge of entering St. Ann's Convent with intent to commit a felony.

Capt. Bloomfield asked for a remand. The sisters could not attend to-day on account of the business connected with examination. The remand was granted until to-morrow.

The same prisoner was then charged with breaking windows in houses on Chatham street.

Officer Miller stated: Between 2 and 3 o'clock on the morning of the 21st was on duty on Chatham street; saw a number of broken windows; they were not broken which witness passed an hour before; saw prisoner with a gunnar coming along Douglas street after the windows were broken; an Indian woman told me who broke the windows.

Jenny, an Indian woman, said she was lying in bed at 2 o'clock on Thursday morning; heard the windows smash; went to the door and saw prisoner run away; he did not appear very drunk; heard windows breaking in the empty houses adjoining; have seen prisoner before.

To prisoner—I saw you run away; it was a bright moonlight night.

This charge was also remanded until to-morrow.

Outer Harbor.

The Council of the Board of Trade on Thursday afternoon considered a report on the desirability of dredging the outer harbor to permit of the landing of Chinese steamers. A plan by F. C. Gamble, C. E., was exhibited, showing the bottom to be of mud, which can easily be removed to a depth of 25 feet at low tide. A resolution was adopted urging the Dominion Government to place the dredger at the outer wharf for this purpose. The Board of Trade are deserving of the thanks of our citizens for thus presenting a practical solution of a difficulty in respect to the calling of the Chinese steamers—a difficulty that ought not to be permitted to remain one day longer than it really takes to remove it.

Cupid's Captives.

As announced in THE TIMES on Thursday our well known Deputy Sheriff, Mr. John M. Langley, became entangled in the meshes of matrimony, and in response to the flickerings of his heart, was made a most willing captive by one of Victoria's fairest daughters. The capias was served last night by the Right Rev. Bishop Cridge, at the residence of the bride's parents in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The charming bride, Miss Fannie Allatt, was given away by Mr. J. Pawson, of Nanaimo, whilst Mr. A. R. Langley acted as best man. At the conclusion of the interesting ceremony the happy party sat down to a sumptous repast. THE TIMES joins with the many friends of Mr. Langley and his bride in wishing them a long life of unalloyed prosperity and happiness.
